The Old Granary, Pentwyngwyn Road, Rudry
A Truly Exceptional Country Home with Character, Space & Land

Tucked away in the picturesque village of Rudry, The Old Granary is a remarkable detached farmhouse offering an enviable blend of period character, generous accommodation and peaceful countryside living, all within easy reach of Caerphilly and Cardiff.

Set within approximately 0.73 acres, this impressive home extends to around 3,207 sq ft and provides an abundance of space, versatility and potential — making it an ideal home for family life, entertaining and those looking for something genuinely different.

Characterful & Spacious Living
From the moment you arrive, The Old Granary has an unmistakable sense of charm and individuality.

The accommodation offers six generous bedrooms and three reception rooms, providing plenty of flexibility for modern family living, working from home, entertaining guests or accommodating extended family.

Throughout the property, traditional farmhouse character combines beautifully with the proportions and practicality expected of a modern country home.

Modern Comfort & Energy Efficiency

Whilst retaining its original charm, the property has also benefited from significant modern improvements. A new central heating system powered by air source heat pumps has been installed, complemented by 12 solar panels feeding into the grid. These features provide an attractive combination of modern sustainability and the potential for reduced ongoing electricity costs.

Exceptional Outside Space & Potential
The grounds extend to approximately 0.73 acres, providing a wonderful sense of privacy and space rarely found so close to Cardiff. The original milking parlour provides an exciting additional space with a wealth of potential. Subject to the necessary consents, it could lend itself to a garage, studio, home gym, workshop or other ancillary accommodation. A substantial driveway provides parking for approximately five to six vehicles.

	Location
	A Picturesque Village - Rudry is a quaint, picturesque village located in the county borough of Caerphilly, South Wales. Known for its stunning rural landscapes and serene environment, Rudry is an idyllic spot that offers the best of both worlds the peace and tranquillity of the countryside with easy access to urban amenities.

Strategic Location - Rudry is ideally situated near the major cities of Newport, Cardiff, and Caerphilly, making it a highly desirable location for those seeking a semi-rural lifestyle. The village's proximity to these urban centres means residents can enjoy the benefits of city life, such as shopping, dining, and cultural activities, while retreating to a quieter, more relaxed home environment.

Local Amenities - Despite its rural charm, Rudry has a range of local amenities that cater to the needs of its residents. The village boasts a welcoming community, a local pub (The Maenllwyd Inn), and access to beautiful walking and cycling trails. It is an excellent location for families, professionals, and retirees alike, offering a friendly and supportive community atmosphere. One of Rudry's most appealing features is its natural beauty. The surrounding countryside offers numerous opportunities for outdoor activities, including hiking, horse riding, and nature walks. Rudry Common, a local nature reserve, is a popular spot for both locals and visitors, providing breathtaking views and a habitat for diverse wildlife.

Transport and Connectivity - The village benefits from good transport links, with easy access to major roads and public transport services. This connectivity ensures that residents can commute efficiently to nearby cities for work or leisure, making Rudry a convenient base for exploring the broader region.
