Situated in the heart of Senghenydd, Caerphilly, this charming mid-terrace house on High Street offers almost 1,000 sq ft of spacious accommodation, making it an excellent opportunity for families, first-time buyers and investors alike. With generous living space and the potential to appeal to buyers looking for more space than they can afford in central Caerphilly, this property is certainly worth viewing. The two original reception rooms have been thoughtfully knocked through to create one large, bright and airy living space, providing plenty of room for relaxing, entertaining and spending time with family and friends. The property offers three spacious bedrooms, each providing a comfortable and peaceful retreat. The well-proportioned bathroom features a large double shower tray, while the separate utility room provides a practical addition for modern family living. To the rear, the kitchen opens through sliding doors onto a three-tiered patio garden, offering a fantastic outdoor space for al fresco dining, entertaining or simply enjoying the beautiful surrounding countryside views. The property also benefits from rear lane access and hardstanding potential, providing an exciting opportunity for buyers looking for additional outdoor space, parking or future potential, subject to any necessary consents. Situated within a vibrant community, the property benefits from easy access to local shops, schools, parks and other amenities. Senghenydd is surrounded by beautiful countryside while remaining within easy reach of Caerphilly and its wider range of facilities. Offered for sale chain free, this spacious home provides an excellent opportunity for buyers looking to secure a substantial property without the price tag associated with larger homes in more central locations.
