This flat has been an absolute joy to own a bright, cosy, and welcoming space that is always a delight to return home to. What first drew me to the property, and what remains its biggest highlight, is its unbeatable location on North Street. You are perfectly positioned to enjoy the very best of Bristol living: Right on Your Doorstep: Incredible independent pubs, fantastic restaurants, and vibrant live music and comedy venues. A stone's throw away from both Ashton Court and Victoria Park for those slower, more peaceful days. From last-minute match days watching the rugby or football at Ashton Gate, to quiet Sunday mornings strolling through the Tobacco Factory Markets, the variety of entertainment here is unmatched. Whether you are looking for a bustling social life close to the city or a peaceful retreat near green spaces, this flat offers the ultimate Bristol lifestyle. I have no doubt the next owner will love living here just as much as I have.
