It's been fantastic to watch this renovation take shape, working closely with the vendors to ensure the property delivers everything today's buyers are looking for. Finished to a high standard throughout and set in one of Barry's most sought-after locations, this is a home that's unlikely to stay on the market for long.

it's been really satisfying to see this project come to life. We set out to create a home we'd be happy to live in ourselves, paying close attention to the details that make a space feel both stylish and practical. Finished to a high standard throughout and set in one of Barry's most sought-after locations, we're incredibly proud of the end result and excited to see it enjoyed by its next owners.
