What I love about this property is the excellent balance of space and location. The two reception rooms offer great flexibility for living and entertaining, while the three bedrooms make it ideal for families or those needing extra space. It's bright, welcoming, and perfectly positioned close to local amenities and the coast, making it a home that's both practical and enjoyable to live in.

What I've really loved about living here is the sense of space and flexibility the house offers. The two reception rooms have been perfect for both relaxing and hosting, and the three bedrooms have given me all the room I've needed. The house always feels bright and welcoming, and being so close to local amenities and the coast has made everyday life incredibly convenient and enjoyable.
