This is a rare opportunity to bring to the market, and I'm excited to find the perfect buyer. Offering three double bedrooms, an upstairs bathroom, and a separate W/C on the first floor, this home is a truly uncommon find in Barry.

With generous living spaces throughout, it's ideal for growing families or anyone looking for extra room to enjoy. The versatile layout also suits a wide range of buyers — whether you love entertaining, work from home, or simply want a comfortable space for family life.

This house has been the perfect home for my family, giving both of my daughters their own generously sized double bedrooms. The off-road parking and driveway have also been incredibly convenient day to day. Over the years, I've especially enjoyed making the garden my own — it offers the ideal balance of space to enjoy without being too demanding to maintain.
