Located on the busy Island Road in Barry, this workshop offers an excellent investment opportunity for businesses seeking a prominent and well-connected location. Positioned on a lively high street, the property enjoys strong footfall and outstanding visibility, making it perfectly suited for retail or office use.

The workshop has been fully refurbished to a high standard throughout, creating a contemporary and welcoming environment for both staff and customers. It features three flexible office or retail areas, thoughtfully designed to maximise space, comfort, and usability. A modern w/c further enhances the practicality of the property.

More than just a workspace, this property provides a strong foundation for business success within a thriving local community. Its prime location and quality finish make it highly appealing to a wide range of occupiers. Ideal for expanding an existing business or launching a new venture, this Island Road workshop represents an opportunity not to be overlooked.
