What I love about this property is the sense of space and how well it's laid out for modern living. Built by Taylor Wimpey, the home feels well designed and offers generous accommodation of around 1,098 sq ft, with a layout that works perfectly for both family life and entertaining.

What I've always loved about this home is how well it's laid out and how easy it is to live in. The space flows nicely, with a comfortable living room and a kitchen-dining area that works perfectly for everyday life as well as entertaining.

The three bedrooms and two bathrooms make it very practical, and the property's position means it feels more private than many other modern homes. Having off-road parking for two cars and being close to local amenities, schools, and transport links are added benefits that have made living here particularly convenient.
