THE WATERFRONT

One of the standout moments for me in this home was simply sitting in the living room with the sellers, taking it all in. The natural light pours through the large windows, creating a bright and uplifting space, while the gentle glistening of the water in the distance adds something really special. It's a view and atmosphere that instantly makes you feel relaxed. Something that truly sets this home apart.

We've really loved how this home offers such a great balance of comfort and practicality. The space works so well for everyday living, whether it's relaxing in the evenings or having friends and family over. It's always felt easy to live in, with a warm and welcoming atmosphere throughout. Combined with the location and the views, it's been a home that's been both enjoyable and convenient for us.
