The sellers have absolutely loved spending time in the garden over the years, and we can completely see why. It's such a beautifully kept and versatile outdoor space that feels both peaceful and welcoming. From summer gatherings on the patio to quiet afternoons enjoying the privacy and greenery, the garden really does feel like an extension of the home and is sure to be enjoyed by the next owners just as much.

Our favourite part of this home has to be the stunning rear garden. It's a space that feels peaceful and private. We've enjoyed morning coffees on the patio, entertaining friends in the summer and watching our children play on the lawn. The summer house at the rear is a perfect little escape to relax and unwind all year round.
