What I will miss most about this home are the breathtaking views across Barry and out to the sea, the light-filled open-plan living space that has been the heart of our family life, and the characterful details like the stained-glass windows that give the house its unique charm. I'll also miss the peaceful garden, the versatile home office, and the sense of community in such a friendly and well-connected neighbourhood

Situated on Somerset Road East in the sought-after town of Barry, this impressive semi-detached residence blends contemporary living with attractive period character. Offering three generously sized bedrooms and two well-appointed bathrooms, the property is perfectly suited to family life.

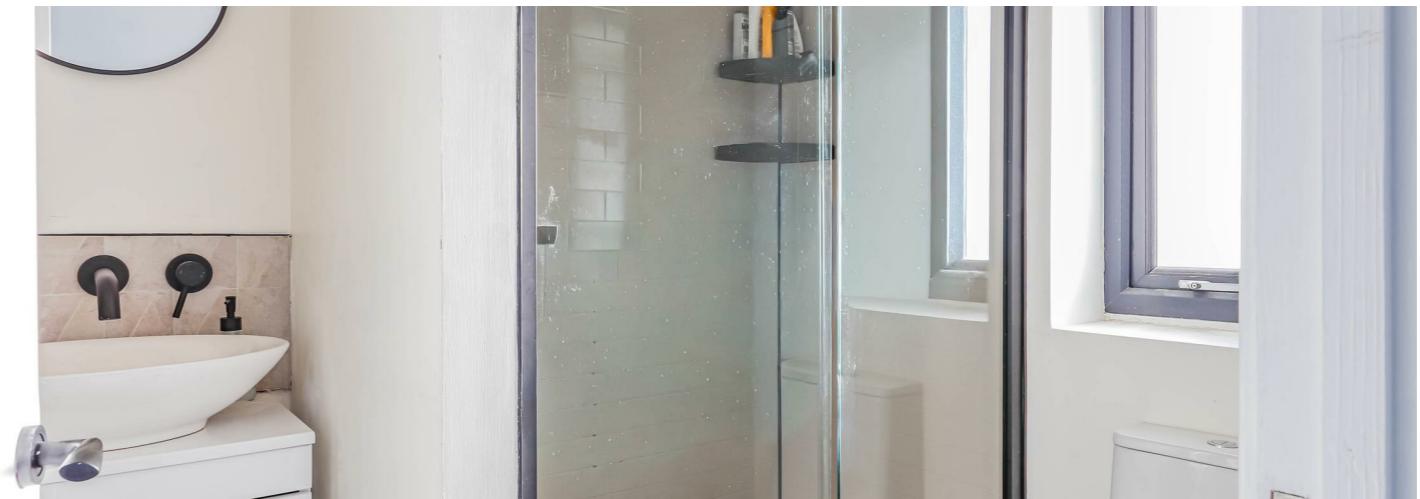

On entering the home, you are welcomed by bright hallways featuring original stained-glass windows, which add warmth and character while setting the tone for the rest of the property. To the rear, a stunning open-plan kitchen, dining, and living space has been designed to maximise natural light and take full advantage of the elevated views across Barry and out towards the sea, creating an ideal setting for both everyday living and entertaining.

In addition, the property benefits from a separate, cosy living room with folding doors, allowing the space to be opened up to create a more open-plan feel or closed off for a more intimate and comfortable retreat.

Outside, the generous rear garden offers a peaceful haven, providing plenty of space for children to play, outdoor dining, or summer gatherings, all while enjoying the picturesque outlook. Off-road parking adds further convenience.

The former garage has been thoughtfully converted into a versatile home office, complete with a shower room and useful storage area, perfectly suited to modern working-from-home needs.

Combining modern features with charming original details, this exceptional home presents a rare opportunity to settle in a vibrant and well-connected community. Early viewing is highly recommended.
