Hyde Estates presents this immaculate retail unit arranged over three floors. Located on this prestigious high street in the heart of Monton. The unit formerly trading as a tanning salon is accessed via a glazed shop front and features a retail area with inset spot lighting, laminate flooring and air conditioning. Presently there's a reception area, three treatment chairs and treatment room to the front. To the rear is a kitchen, WC, and security door allowing access to a generous enclosed rear yard. The first floor comprises of a further four treatment rooms with laminate flooring, suspended ceiling, with inset lighting, one air conditioning unit, and a WC. The lower ground floor benefits three rooms. Further features include a security alarm, together with a fob operated electric security shutters to the shop front.

Note – many of the treatment rooms are built within stud walls, it's a possibility these walls can be removed to allow for re modelling to open the ground and first floor should the ingoing tenant wish to do so. Subject to landlords' approval.

Utilities – mains connected three phase electrics. There is a gas mains pipe into the lower ground floor of the property, currently unmetered and unused. Should the ingoing tenant require gas this will require reinstatement by the ingoing tenant.

The surrounding area boasts a vibrant commercial environment, with a diverse mix of independent retail, dining, nightlife, and leisure establishments, alongside prominent businesses such as Tesco Express and NatWest.

Location - the unit is ideally situated on an established parade of shops on Monton Road directly opposite Tesco Express, offering convenient access to the M602 and M60 motorway.
