"AGENT'S COMMENTS"

A rare opportunity to purchase a home on the Lincolnshire coast with 180 degree sea views and direct beach access! Positioned in an elevated location, this three bedroom home with its enviable beachfront position offers a large conservatory from which to absorb the sounds of the sea, has the advantage of a ground floor bedroom and shower room and two further bedrooms with extended views over either the seascape or towards the Lincolnshire Wolds. The property is located in a quiet coastal village via a private cul-de-sac road, has ample private parking and a sizeable garage. With gardens providing panoramic views to both the front and rear, the property predominately benefits from double glazing throughout, has solid fuel and electric heating and is brought to the market with no onward chain.

LOCATION

Anderby Creek is a small seaside village with an expansive beach and seasonal amenities to include cafes and bars with adjoining nature reserves to the north and south. Chapel St Leonards, also a coastal village, is approx. 2.5 miles to the south has a doctor's surgery, shops and range of eateries. Skegness is approx. 11 miles to the south with supermarkets, banks, range of shops including national chains, train station and hospital. The market town of Alford being approx. 5 miles to the west also has shops, doctor's surgery and dentists. Primary schools are located at the neighbouring villages of Huttoft, Hogsthorpe and Chapel St Leonards with both comprehensive & grammar schools in Skegness and Alford.
