A very well presented modern FREEHOLD detached family home in a gorgeous cul-de-sac position overlooking open land to the south with fabulous uninterrupted views. Sabden Close is a very well regarded location with a range of detached houses and bungalows all presented to exacting standards. Bury town centre is only 1 mile away and the nearest motorway junction is around the same distance and yet open countryside is literally on the doorstep and there are walks immediately from the property down into Burrs Country Park.

The property has been re roofed within the last 3 years and the central heating boiler was replaced around the same time. There is upvc double glazing, the driveway has been re-laid with a concrete printed finish and this provides access to the integral double garage with remotely operated door.

Briefly the accommodation comprises: entrance hall with open plan return staircase to the first floor, guest cloakroom/w.c., lounge with wood burning stove, double doors onto dining room, recently fitted kitchen with quartz countertops and freestanding range style cooker, first floor landing, four generous bedrooms and a three piece shower room. To the outside there are gardens to three sides with a decked sun patio including summerhouse.
