A two bed roomed stone built Althorp owned end terraced property with allocated parking, wrap around garden and a patio area for entertaining in the popular village of Chapel Brampton.

Unfurnished accommodation comprising living room, kitchen, two double bedrooms, bathroom, garden, outbuilding, parking. Gas radiator central heating. EPC rating E, Council tax band C

The property is accessed via the kitchen which has modern cream base and eye height units with wood effect worktops and flooring, ceramic hob, electric oven and space for a washing machine and dishwasher. An understairs cupboard provides storage and stairs from the kitchen lead to the first floor. A hallway leads to the living room and provides garden access. The living room benefits from a working fireplace with cupboards either side and original wooden window shutters.

The first floor has two large double bedrooms, one with dual aspect windows and a storage cupboard that houses the boiler. The bathroom has modern white tiling with black grouting, bath with shower above that has a rainfall head, toilet, hand basin, heated towel rail and wood effect flooring.

Externally, the property has a large lawned garden which is separated into two by low level fencing and a gate, making it ideal for pets. There is a paved patio area and views of the local church.
