DESCRIPTION

The Old School House is a beautifully restored three-bedroom detached character residence, originally constructed in 1876 as the village schoolhouse and headmaster's home. Nestled in the idyllic village of Alverdiscott, this unlisted property enjoys charming views of the neighbouring church and rolling countryside. Offering a rare blend of heritage, tranquillity, and modern convenience, it is ideally located within easy reach of Torrington, Barnstaple, and Bideford.

ACCOMMODATION

Entry is via a practical porch with space for coats and footwear, leading into a stunning kitchen/dining room with vaulted ceilings and triple-aspect windows that flood the space with natural light. The recently refurbished kitchen features a bespoke range of cream units, granite work surfaces, a central island with breakfast seating, and original wood flooring that preserves the home's period charm.

A spiral staircase leads to a mezzanine level, currently used as a home office, offering far-reaching countryside views. The open-plan dining area includes a newly installed wood-burning stove, double-aspect windows, and a bespoke wooden bookcase. Integrated appliances include a fridge, freezer, dishwasher, oven, grill, warming drawer, and microwave space. A rear door leads to a potential walk-in larder.

The sitting room is divided by a central staircase, with a flexible snug area on one side-suitable for a breakfast room, study, or playroom. This space features exposed stonework and a second wood-burning stove, creating a cosy atmosphere. To the rear, a utility room offers scope for conversion to a wet room and is already fitted with base and wall units, sink, power and lighting.

Upstairs, there are three bedrooms-two spacious doubles and one smaller double. The family bathroom has been recently upgraded and includes a full-size bath, wash basin and WC.
