DESCRIPTION

Dating from circa 1815, the property was greatly improved in 1987 with the original fireplace remaining. The property has exposed ceiling beams, a feature stone fireplace with wood-burning stove and wide plank flooring.

ACCOMMODATION

Upon entering the cottage, you are welcomed by a spacious sitting and dining area with two windows providing natural lighting to flood the room. The focal point is a stone fireplace housing a wood-burning stove, framed by exposed oak beams overhead and complemented by wide plank flooring underfoot. A built-in window seat overlooks the garden.

Off the main living area, the kitchen is fitted with shaker-style units and benefits from a freestanding electric range cooker, dishwasher, washing machine and a sink set beneath a window. A door opens onto steps that lead you down onto a stone patio, where the external oil boiler is located, Adjacent to the kitchen, the utility room offers practical space for a fridge, freezer and additional storage.

Upstairs, the landing leads to three comfortable bedrooms and the shower room. The principal bedroom is located at the front of the house and features built-in cupboards. The second bedroom (a double bedroom) is currently arranged with twin single beds and overlooks the garden. The third bedroom is currently arranged with a single bed and could be used as a study.
