SITUATION

The property is situated in small hamlet of Burlawn, around 2 miles from the pretty former market town of Wadebridge which sits astride the river Camel. The town offers a wide variety of independent shops together with primary and secondary education, a cinema, numerous sports and social clubs and access to the popular Camel Cycle Trail.

The property is perfectly located to access the magnificent North Cornish Coast, a short distance from the popular sandy beaches of Polzeath and Daymer whilst the watersports haven of Rock has long stretches of sandy beaches on the shores of the beautiful Camel Estuary.

Nearby Padstow and Port Isaac are renowned harbour destinations with a number of fine restaurants including Rick Stein's Seafood Restaurant and Nathan Outlaw's Michelin starred restaurant.

Mainline railway services are available at Bodmin Parkway connecting London Paddington via Plymouth whilst Newquay Airport provides a number of scheduled flights to both domestic and international destinations.

ACCOMMODATION

Wren Cottage is a charming character cottage in an idyllic hamlet with far reaching countryside views and access to picturesque woodland walks. The property is built from stone with a partial slate-hung frontage and a block rear extension. The first floor offers an entrance porch which leads into a sitting/ dining room featuring a stone inglenook fireplace with multi-fuel burner and cloam oven. To the rear of the cottage is a bathroom and kitchen with built-in electric oven and hob, space for appliances and a door leading to the rear garden.

Upstairs are two double bedrooms, both with built-in cupboards and Bedroom One has wonderful countryside views.

OUTSIDE

The beautiful gardens are mostly laid to lawn with a patio seating area, mature shrubs and trees and a stone shed at the bottom. The laundry room provides power and plumbing and offers space for appliances. There is side access via a gate and a pedestrian right of way for the adjoining property.

To the side of the cottage there is offroad parking for 2-3 cars on behind the other.
