DESCRIPTION

Polford Cottage is a charming and beautifully presented Grade II Listed detached home, believed to date back to the late 18th Century. Constructed of rendered cob and stone beneath a traditional thatched roof, the property is rich in character, showcasing original fireplaces, exposed ceiling beams, and a wealth of period features throughout. Set within landscaped gardens approaching an acre, the property also benefits from a detached single-storey annexe, accessed via its own separate entrance, offering excellent flexibility for guests, extended family or home office use.

ACCOMMODATION

A charming covered porch with a pitched slate roof opens into a welcoming entrance hall, complete with slate flooring and access to the principal reception rooms. The sitting room is a particularly inviting space, featuring a striking stone fireplace with oak lintel, original bread oven, and built-in cupboard. The adjacent dining room also showcases a wealth of period detail, including an original fireplace with bread oven, exposed stonework, decorative ceiling beams, and a staircase rising to the first floor.

To the rear of the cottage, the owners have created a stunning farmhouse-style kitchen and family room. Beautifully appointed with a comprehensive range of matching base and eye-level units, a Belfast sink, and a central island, the kitchen also includes a recess for a range-style cooker. Open-plan to a part-glazed family area, there is ample space for dining and entertaining, with French doors opening directly to the garden. A practical utility room is located just off the kitchen, offering further storage, a sink, and plumbing for a washing machine.

An inner hallway leads to a study and a stylish ground floor bathroom, fitted with a Victorian-style roll top bath, a separate walk-in shower, WC, and a further door to the garden. Upstairs, the accommodation continues with four well-proportioned bedrooms and a modern family bathroom.

ANNEXE

Accessed via its own private entrance, the detached single-storey annexe offers excellent versatility and includes a useful first-floor storage area. The accommodation comprises an open-plan sitting room and kitchen, along with a double bedroom and bathroom. Subject to the necessary planning permissions, the annexe presents an ideal opportunity for holiday letting, short-term rental, or multi-generational living.

GARDENS

To the front of the cottage, a parking bay for two vehicles is accessed directly from the lane, with steps leading down through the attractive front garden to the main entrance. Beyond this, the primary driveway gently sweeps down to a generous parking and turning area at the side of the cottage. To the right, a grassy bank and hedgerow border open farmland, enhancing the rural outlook.

The front garden is mainly laid to lawn and thoughtfully planted with a variety of shrubs, trees, and flowering plants. The majority of the grounds—extending to nearly an acre—lie to the rear of the property, featuring level lawns bordered by mature hedging, well-stocked beds, and a range of established trees. A charming wooden bridge crosses a small stream, leading to a tranquil wildflower meadow, offering a perfect space for relaxation and enjoyment of the natural surroundings.
