Situation

The Old Chapel is situated at the edge of the hamlet of Higher Clovelly, above the famous village of Clovelly, a beautiful 14th-century harbour village, renowned for being privately owned and having no automobile access (meaning goods are brought down via sledge), cobblestone alleys and whitewashed cottages. It is easy to understand why it is one of the most visited villages in the UK. Close by is the rugged coastline of North Devon and Cornwall, famed for its many Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty, cliff-top walks and safe bathing beaches. Nearby popular beauty spots include Welcombe, Peppercombe Beach, Hartland Quay, Stanbury Mouth and Bucks Mills. The village of Hartland offers a good range of daily amenities including: post office, pubs, award-winning restaurant, café, church, independent shops, primary school and medical centre. Hartland Abbey, the lighthouse at Hartland Point and Hartland Quay are all situated close by.

The area is widely known for its stunning scenery and natural 'picture postcard' beauty, with award-winning beaches, rugged coastline, enchanting/quaint villages, lush, rolling countryside and the uncompromising beauty of Exmoor National Park. The large towns of Bideford (east) & Bude (west) both offer a comprehensive range of facilities from schooling to shopping.

The A39 is a short distance away and provides brisk passage in and out of the area. The M5 and Tiverton Parkway train station (London Paddington 1h 57m) are approx. 57 miles by car.

Description

Once a former Methodist Chapel, serving the local community, the property has been sympathetically converted into a bespoke and spacious family home. Inside, the house offers versatile and modern accommodation, whilst embracing the ecclesiastical vernacular of its past. Outside, the house is complemented by a gated driveway and parking, large, low-maintenance, level gardens and land, approx. 8.67 acres in total. The property is currently a successful holiday let and is being offered for sale for the first time in 20 years, with no onward chain.

At the back of the house there is a sheltered courtyard and deck with external boiler room and staircase up to the large, elevated dining terrace. The front of the house is laid to gravel, with ease of maintenance in mind and the large, level, lawned gardens are very useable but also offer a blank canvas. The land extends to the north of the house, towards the coast, and is currently left to nature and is bountiful in wild grass, rushes and sedge but could be turned to pasture or an alternative use, if desired.
