DESCRIPTION

The Cheese House is a beautifully presented four-bedroom semi-detached period home, offering charm, space, and flexibility in equal measure. Once part of a historic cheese manufacturing plant, the property now forms part of the desirable Cricketers Development — a peaceful enclave combining rural charm with modern convenience.

This elegant home boasts a wealth of original features, including a striking stone fireplace, solid wood flooring, high ceilings, and attractive sash-style windows. The property benefits from two allocated parking spaces, enclosed gardens, and is offered to the market with no onward chain.

ACCOMMODATION

Approached through a private gated entrance, the home opens into a welcoming hallway leading to two generous reception rooms—each boasting large windows and feature fireplaces, creating warm and inviting living spaces. The sitting room features a beautiful stone fireplace, while the living room enjoys a wood-burning stove with a red-brick hearth.

The well-appointed kitchen offers a stylish range of modern units, a range-style cooker, integrated appliances, and a walk-in pantry. Bi-folding doors open directly onto the sunny rear garden, creating a seamless indoor-outdoor flow ideal for entertaining.

A ground-floor shower room, two storage cupboards, and a practical layout complete the lower level.

Upstairs, the first-floor landing leads to four well-proportioned double bedrooms. The principal bedroom features a modern en suite shower room and solid wood flooring. Bedroom two also benefits from its own en suite with bath and shower over. Two further double bedrooms, a family shower room, and ample storage complete this elegant accommodation.

OUTSIDE

The front garden is enclosed by newly installed fencing and laid mainly to lawn, with space for seating and log storage. The low-maintenance rear garden features a combination of paving and stone chippings, perfect for relaxing or alfresco dining.
