SITUATION

Chacklehayes occupies a delightful semi-rural location yet within easy reach of Bridport, Eype, Chideock and Symondsbury. It is located within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The thriving and historic market town of Bridport offers excellent shopping, business and leisure facilities. Also nearby is the picturesque village of Symondsbury with a church, public house and a popular primary school. There is easy access via nearby footpaths onto open countryside and the Jurassic Coast/South West Coast Path beyond.

DIRECTIONS

From Bridport town centre, follow West Street and continue straight ahead at both mini roundabouts onto West Allington. Follow this road out of the town and to the junction of the A35. Turn right towards Chideock, and after about 0.25 mile, turn right down the lane which is between the stone barn and stone wall. Follow the track around to the left and to the end where the parking for the cottage can be found.
