SITUATION

This appealing home is located in a quiet cul-de-sac within the popular riverside village of Calstock, just 100 yards from the village's train station and 500 yards from the amenities and facilities of the village centre, including access to the River Tamar. Enjoying a good degree of privacy and shelter, the house also benefits from some attractive views to the front, including of Calstock's iconic viaduct.

Sitting amongst the Tamar Valley National Landscape (formerly AONB), Calstock is a thriving village with an active arts and musical community, benefitting from a regular, 35-minute train service to the city of Plymouth. With its access to the River Tamar, quay and mooring facilities, the village is popular with sailing enthusiasts. Within a short walk are The River Tamar Walkway and Wetland Project, a wildlife nature reserve, and various other footpaths and trails, including the National Trust's notable Cotehele House and Estate.

The desirable market town of Tavistock in West Devon, with its superb range of shopping, recreational and educational facilities, is just 6.5 miles away.

DESCRIPTION

Offered to the market with no onward chain is this extremely comfortable and well-rounded, 3/4-bedroom detached house in a desirable cul-de-sac position in the heart of Calstock. Improved significantly during our client's ownership, the house is finished and presented to a very high standard whilst offering a good degree of peace, privacy and flexibility. Of particular note are the striking, vaulted sitting room, south-facing balcony enjoying excellent views, large integral garage, and landscaped front and rear gardens.

ACCOMMODATION

The house is characterised by bright, tastefully finished and presented rooms which should appeal to those with a number of lifestyles and requirements. The layout is briefly summarised as follows: a welcoming entrance hallway; an impressive, dual-aspect vaulted sitting room centered around a stone fireplace and with access to a south-facing balcony terrace, from where one can enjoy views of the Tamar Valley; a separate snug room which could be utilised as a formal dining room, home office or ground floor bedroom; a cloakroom; a very well-appointed kitchen/dining room, which is equipped with a good range of contemporary units including a central island and breakfast bar, full-height pantry cupboards, and integrated appliances to include a NEFF 4-ring induction hob and extractor over, a NEFF oven, a Bosch multi-function oven, a Hoover dishwasher and a built-in fridge; a dedicated utility room; a rear WC; three first-floor bedrooms including a rear-facing master suite with a modern en-suite shower room, and; a standalone shower room featuring a sophisticated Insignia multi-function shower with both a rain-style head, body jets, steam function and built-in radio.

OUTSIDE

To the front of the house is a tarmac and gravelled driveway, providing off-road parking space for several vehicles, flanked by a mature front garden. The integral garage is of a good size, with a remote-controlled, up-and-over door, plus power, lighting and water. The attractively landscaped rear garden features a timber summerhouse on a concrete base which opens to a gravelled seating area, a separate octagonal greenhouse and a corrugated metal tool shed.

SERVICES

Mains water, electricity and drainage. Heating is via electric radiators. Superfast broadband is available, and mobile voice/data services are available with O2 and Vodafone. (Source, Ofcom's online service checker). Please note that the agents have neither inspected nor tested these services.

AGENT'S NOTES
