SITUATION

1-2 Cliff Bungalows, Riviere Towans, a spectacular coastal location a couple of minutes walk from the beach and Waters Edge. One of the finest stretches of coastline in Cornwall- Hayle Beach stretches for 3 miles to Godrevy lighthouse. The beach path runs immediately to the side of the property providing direct access onto the award-winning beach.

The property is superbly located within a couple of minutes walk of a mini market, local pub and the Cove café situated immediately behind the property on Hayle Beach which offers sweeping views of St Ives bay.

Set within a 30 minute drive of a multitude of exciting tourist destinations- the internationally renowned bird sanctuary at Paradise Park, the Seal Sanctuary at Gweek, St Michaels Mount, Carbis Bay and St Ives.

Hayle benefits from a wide range of local shops, supermarkets and general stores with the additional benefit of close access to a small retail development with a large Boots, Marks & Spencer, as well as a small hospital. The property is also close to the the West Cornwall golf club at Lelant. Hayle Academy is the local co-educational secondary school sponsored by Truro and Penwith Academy Trust and is rated Good (March 2020) Ofsted.

The Hayle Estuary is also an invaluable feeding ground for migratory birds in spring and autumn, which Bird watchers come from far afield to observe. Hayle Mainline railway station links direct to London Paddington, providing easy access to the property along the South Western Trainline. St Erth train station, with its ample parking, is situated within a 5 minute drive of the property and provides easy access to St Ives along the stunning coastal rail -line The local coast bus to St Ives stop is 2 minutes from the property. The cathedral city of Truro is approximately 19 miles distant.
