SITUATION

The property is situated close to the small village of Templeton, with a church and parish hall/social club. The area is renowned for country pursuits, with the Exmoor National Park approximately 10 miles to the north and North Devon, with its rugged coast and popular beaches, accessible via the A361. The property itself is located in a small cluster of other beautiful homes, close to Templeton Bridge that runs over The River Dart.

The villages of Nomansland and Rackenford are nearby, with churches, excellent village pubs, and a community shop in Rackenford. The Masons Arms at Knowstone, about 5 miles, has a renowned restaurant with a Michelin Star.

Tiverton is an old market town with a historic castle, on the banks of the River Exe. There are several supermarkets, a wide range of shops, a district hospital, a sports centre and an 18-hole golf course. There are schools for all ages and in Tiverton there is Blundells Public School, which offers discounts to local pupils. The area is very accessible with easy access along the A361 to the M5 motorway at junction 27. Beside J27 is Tiverton Parkway Railway Station with fast trains to London Paddington taking approximately 2 hours. The airports of Exeter and Bristol are within an easy driving distance.

DESCRIPTION

The Chapel House, Templeton is a charming and historic property that was built in 1868 and underwent a refurbishment in 1950. Nestled within a picturesque setting, the house boasts a beautiful garden that is meticulously maintained. One of the highlights of the property is its direct access onto a stream, which meanders gracefully into the renowned River Dart.

ACCOMMODATION

This delightful home features three spacious bedrooms, each offering lovely views of the surroundings. The bedrooms provide ample space for relaxation and tranquility. The property also includes a generously sized kitchen/dining room, providing a perfect space for culinary endeavours and enjoyable meals with family and friends.

The large sitting room is another noteworthy feature of the Chapel House. This room is designed to create a cosy and inviting atmosphere, and it seamlessly opens out into a conservatory. From the conservatory, one can indulge in panoramic views of the well-tended garden and the neighbouring fields, fostering a sense of serenity and connection to nature.

The Chapel House's location is truly exceptional and sets it apart from many other properties. Situated on an elevated position, it forms part of a cluster of impeccably presented, historic homes. This creates a sense of community and preserves the area's charm and character. The property itself boasts a plot size of approximately 1/4 of an acre, offering ample space for outdoor activities, gardening, and enjoying the surroundings.

OUTSIDE

The outdoor space at The Chapel House is where the property really comes to life. Due to its elevated position and west facing garden, the property enjoys sun throughout the day, perfect for entertaining, alfresco dining and gardening.
