DESCRIPTION

Cotmullion is a deceptively spacious four-bedroom chalet bungalow, built in 1971 and offering versatile accommodation with excellent annexe potential. Constructed primarily of reconstituted stone with attractive stone mullion windows beneath a tiled roof, with generous room proportions throughout. The accommodation is flexible and well-arranged, comprising three reception rooms, a good-sized kitchen/breakfast room, utility/shower room, and two double bedrooms along with a family bathroom on the ground floor. The first floor provides two further bedrooms, making the layout ideal for multi-generational living, guests, or those seeking home-office space. Outside, the property is approached via a sweeping driveway offering ample parking and turning space, leading to a detached single garage. The property enjoys level gardens and an adjoining paddock of just over 0.4 acres, with the total plot extending to approximately 0.8 acres.

ACCOMMODATION

The property is entered via an entrance porch with courtesy light and door leading into the entrance hallway, featuring a pine staircase rising to the first floor and a cupboard beneath. A useful store cupboard with power and slatted shelving is also located off the hallway. The cloakroom comprises a low-level WC. The sitting room enjoys fine views from two aspects and features a sliding door leading into the dining room, which also benefits from dual-aspect views and glazed French doors opening onto the rear garden. A further door leads to the kitchen/breakfast room, a spacious room overlooking the rear garden. It includes a single drainer stainless steel sink with adjoining worktops, an excellent range of floor and wall-mounted cupboards and drawers, an electric double oven and grill, electric hob, breakfast table, store cupboard, and attractive exposed brickwork. A door returns to the hallway. To the front of the property is the principal bedroom, which enjoys views from two aspects and includes a pedestal wash hand basin. Adjacent is the family bathroom, comprising a wood-panelled enamelled bath, low-level WC, and twin wash hand basins with tiled surround, storage cupboards and drawers beneath, illuminated mirror, shaver point, and window to the side. Bedroom 4 benefits from a side window, pedestal wash hand basin, and fitted wardrobe. The utility/shower room includes a Belfast sink, shower, plumbing for a washing machine, Firebird Popular 82 oil-fired boiler, and airing cupboard. A generous recreational room completes the ground floor accommodation, featuring tiled flooring throughout, windows on two sides offering garden views, glazed French doors to the rear, three wall lights, and trap access to the roof void. The first-floor landing is light and airy, with eaves storage and a large Velux roof light.
