SITUATION

The property is situated within the popular Dartmoor village of Drewsteignton. The village itself has a strong community with popular inn and 15th century church. The ancient town of Chagford is within easy reach, offering a good range of shops and amenities, primary school, health centre etc. The larger town of Okehampton is within easy driving, again with a good range of shops and services, including three supermarkets, secondary school and cinema. From the property there is easy access to the A30 dual carriageway providing a direct link west into Cornwall or east to the cathedral and University of Exeter with its M5 motorway, main line rail and international air connections together with a major shopping centre. From the village there are many walks and rides onto the open moor with the picturesque Fingle Bridge and the renowned Castle Drogo within easy reach. The open moor offers many opportunities for walking, riding and outdoor pursuits.
