SITUATION

The Dartmoor village of Belstone is a particularly unspoilt moorland community, which is well known for its local inn 'The Tors', together with its popular tea room and village cricket club. From Belstone there are some superb walks and out-riding onto paths and trails amongst the dramatic tors and hills of Dartmoor. A more comprehensive range of amenities can be found in the nearby town of Okehampton which has three supermarkets including a Waitrose, nationally and locally owned shops, modern hospital and leisure centre. There is schooling from infant to A-level standard, sports and leisure facilities including thriving rugby and football clubs as well as tennis, squash and bowls. The cathedral and university city of Exeter is easily accessible via the newly reopened Okehampton station or the A30 dual carriageway, and provides an extensive shopping centre, together with international airport, M5 motorway and mainline rail connections.
