SITUATION

This gently sloping paddock is situated in a lovely rural location, on the northern edge of popular village Tipton St John in the lower Otter Valley. The nearby village benefits from a good range of facilities including community hall, playing fields, church, primary school, shop, garage and renowned Golden Lion pub, providing a home to the active community.

Ottery St Mary is approximately 2 miles to the north, with the coastal and regency town of Sidmouth approximately 5 miles to the south. The Cathedral and University City of Exeter is approximately 14 miles to the west and provides a comprehensive range of educational, recreational and shopping facilities.

DESCRIPTION

Currently in permanent pasture the semi-improved grassland is a haven for wildlife and has been well maintained with minimal inputs. And surrounded by mature hedges and fenced boundaries. The paddock is split into two enclosures as well as an area beside the gate.

In all the land extends 3.93 acres (1.59 ha).

FIELD SHELTERS

Two quality timber field shelters were erected new in 2018

please note no specific planning consent, if required, exists for these, however are included in the sale.

SERVICES

Mains water and electric are understood to cross the land but are not connected

UPLIFT CLAUSE

Due to the location of the field, the land is to be sold subject to the remaining period (about 15 years) of a development clause for residential use, whereby a 20 % uplift in value would become payable to the previous owner. Further details within the legal pack.
