Churchills are pleased to offer for sale this attractive 1930s semi-detached family home situated on a desirable road in Woodford Green. The property offers a large living space, extended kitchen and utility room with high ceilings throughout. Outside, the rear garden extends approximately 33'10 x 23'4 and includes a decked area, lawn and a useful garden shed. The property offers parking to the front for two cars and side access.

The location of the property is less than a mile from South Woodford station, providing easy access to Stratford, Canary Wharf, the city and the West End. A selection of shops are within walking distance, including Waitrose, Sainsbury's and Marks and Spencer. Both state and private education are very well catered for. The property is within catchment of Churchfields infants and junior schools and Woodbridge High School, all of which have recently been graded outstanding by OFSTED. Woodford County High School, St Aubyn's Preparatory School, Bancroft's School and Forest School are also all in easy reach.
