Today, Berkhamsted itself is a busy market town, located to the West of Hertfordshire and just 30 minutes from London by train and and convenient access for traveling north of the country. For commuters, the A41 bypass offers good connections to both the M1 and M25.

Perhaps the town`s most prominent role in National affairs came in 1066 when William the Conqueror was handed the English Crown. Berkhamsted Castle was built following the granting of the crown, and famous names associated with it include Geoffrey Chaucer who was Clerk of Works, and Thomas Becket who was Constable of the Castle in the 12th Century. Substantial ruins of the Castle still remain today.
