A Rare and Remarkably Versatile Country Estate in the Heart of Cowden Village.

Nestled within the peaceful and highly regarded village of Cowden, the Medway House Estate presents a unique opportunity to acquire a beautifully presented country residence offering exceptional flexibility for multi-generational living, home-working, or potential income generation.

Set within delightfully secluded, southerly facing gardens with views toward nearby golf courses, this expansive home incorporates three distinct and self-contained properties. In total, the estate can offer 6-8 bedrooms, 3-4 reception rooms, 4 bathrooms, and 2 fully equipped kitchen/breakfast rooms—a truly rare offering for the larger or extended family.

THE LOCAL AREA

Medway House

The estate includes a detached two-storey annexe providing extensive garaging, storage, and ancillary accommodation, ideal for guest or staff quarters, studio, or office use.

Located just a short stroll from thousands of acres of unspoilt Kent countryside, the village of Cowden combines rural tranquillity with excellent connectivity. Hever, Sweetwoods, and Holtye golf courses, as well as Ashdown Forest and the historic Hever and Chiddingstone Castles, are all nearby, offering a wealth of leisure and lifestyle opportunities.

For commuters, the property is well connected via the A22, M23, and M25, with Cowden station offering services to London, and Gatwick Airport just 30 minutes away.

Cowden itself is a quintessential English village with a rich heritage, home to the beautiful 13th-century St Mary Magdalene Church, the acclaimed Fountain Inn, and the Queens Arms at Cowden Pound.

In summary, Medway House is a truly special country home—elegant, expansive, and highly adaptable—offering a rare blend of lifestyle, location, and potential in one of Kent's most charming villages.
