

HARDINGS

Sheepcote Road
Asking Price £450,000

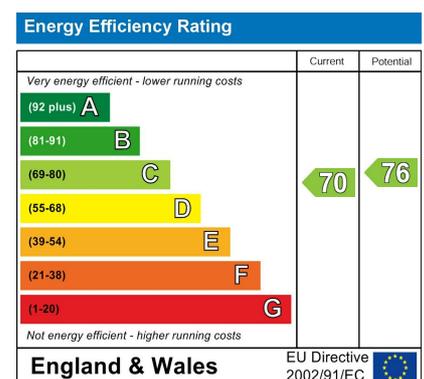

A well-proportioned two-bedroom home offers excellent potential in a highly convenient Windsor location. The property features a spacious reception/dining room and a generous eat-in family kitchen with direct access to the large private garden. There are two well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom, complemented by a useful downstairs cloakroom.

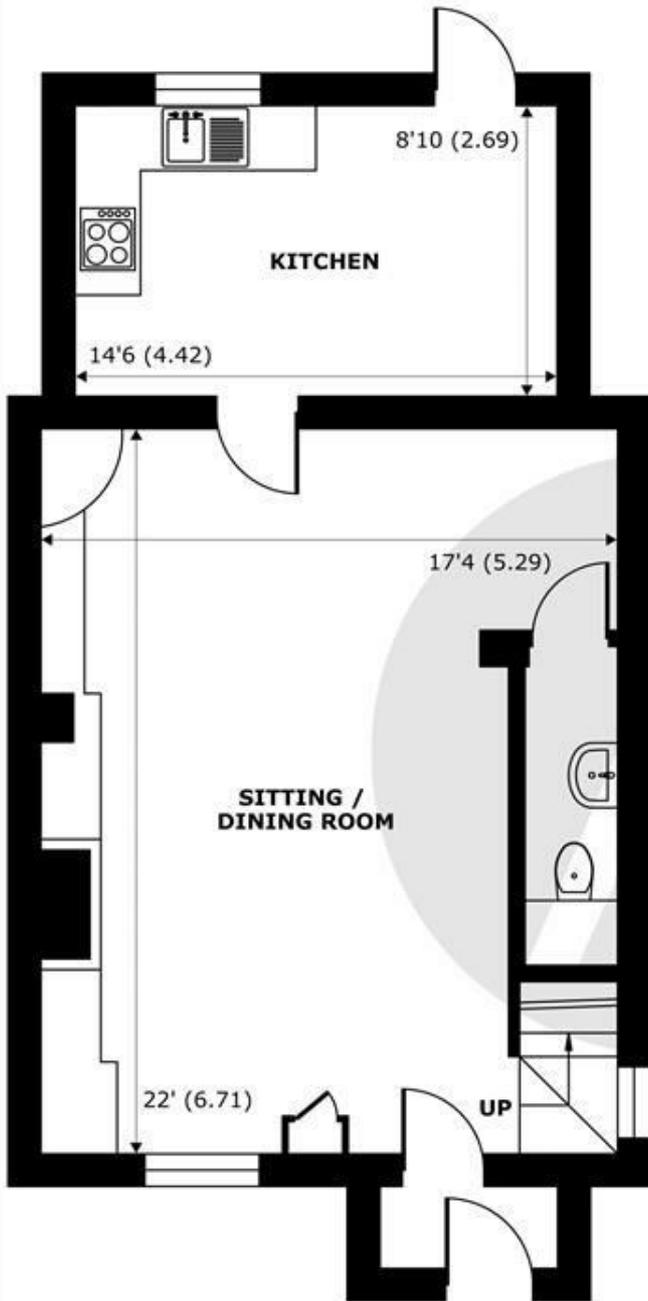

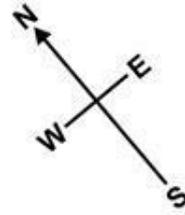

Externally, the home benefits from off-street parking and side access — a valuable addition for buyers. There is also clear potential to extend (subject to the usual planning consents), allowing scope to add further value over time.

Offered to the market with no onward chain, and located close to local amenities, schools and transport links, this is an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers, downsizers or investors alike.
