

47 HEADLAND AVENUE, SEAFORD, BN25 4PZ

£775,000

An older style four bedroom detached house, built in the 1920's, situated in a sought after location, close to Seaford Head and downland walks. Local schools and bus services are within easy reach whilst the town centre and mainland railway station are half a mile distant.

Accommodation is arranged over two floors. The ground floor comprises; entrance hall, living room, conservatory, kitchen/breakfast room, dining room and shower room. The first floor has four double bedrooms, together with a family bathroom. Most of the bedrooms enjoy downland views.

The property is set back from this sought after road with an attractive brick boundary wall and an entrance driveway. There is gated access to the side which leads to the detached double garage.

The private rear garden is of a generous size and fully stocked with various plantation and established trees and has a large home office with power and light.

To fully appreciate the charm and space on offer, an internal inspection is advised.
