

143 NORTON, BISHOPSTONE, BN25 2UW

£550,000

The sale of 143 Norton Farm Cottage offers the opportunity to acquire a charming semi-detached Grade II listed flint and hung tile cottage. Its position is unique and idyllic, while close to the coast and public transport links.

It is situated just off a no-through country lane in the hamlet of Norton, half a mile from the rural village of Bishopstone, St Andrew's Church and village hall. Bishopstone village & Norton both sit inside the South Downs National Park and have a combined population of around 200 people.

The accommodation is arranged over three floors.

The ground floor has a cosy double aspect sitting room, kitchen and a bathroom.

The first floor has a good size double bedroom, together with an occasional bedroom which affords access to the second floor.

The top floor has another bedroom, small dressing area and an ensuite shower.

Extensive countryside views can be enjoyed from the upper floors.

The property benefits from gas central heating (bottled propane) and we are advised good internet connection.

It has has a wealth of historical features including original beams. It also has an attached garage, and a very attractive garden.
