As you step inside, you are welcomed by a bright and spacious dining room featuring a bay window that floods the space with natural light. This leads through to a generous living room, which serves as the cozy heart of the home and provides access to the stairs. To the rear, the galley-style kitchen is well-appointed with an integrated oven and a four-ring gas hob, offering a functional space for home cooking. Uniquely for this style of property, there is a dedicated ground-floor utility and WC area, adding a layer of practical convenience.

Upstairs, the layout is impressively proportioned. Both bedrooms are genuine doubles, ensuring no one has to compromise on space. The primary bedroom is particularly spacious and enjoys a built-in storage cupboard/wardrobe. The first floor is completed by a surprisingly large family bathroom located at the rear, providing a private and relaxing retreat.

The exterior of the property is equally impressive. To the front, you have the rare advantage of off-road parking, a premium find for a village terrace. The rear garden offers a private outdoor escape, but the real hidden gem is the outbuilding located at the bottom of the plot. This versatile structure has fantastic potential to be converted into a handy workshop, stylish home office, or hobby room. With its prime location and spacious interior, this Henry Street home is a fantastic opportunity to join a thriving community.
