On top of the bungalows themselves being of a superb quality, the location itself is not to be forgotten! Accessed off the larger Westfield Avenue estate the properties are tucked away from the hustle and bustle yet remain a short walk from Audley village centre and all required local amenities.

Built by The HMS Group, rest assured that these homes come with customer satisfaction at the heart of everything done to them, and each of these homes will come with fitted Howdens Kitchens, tiled flooring in both the Kitchen and Bathrooms, plus solar panels on each property for clean energy.

Each home is available for immediate reservation off-plan, although the site can be visited strictly by appointment with Lewis King. Reservations are subject to a £500 reservation fee being paid, which will be deducted from the final sale price.
