Darwen, BB3 2QB

'Ashdale' is a most imposing stone detached residence dating back to the 1870's. Originally owned by a local cotton mill owner William Ashton who was reputed to help gain freedom of the moors for the people of Darwen.

Sitting on an enviable plot (approx 0.75 acres) of mature gardens benefiting from a fabulous woodland backdrop bordering the west Pennine moors it is set amongst a small hamlet of similar style properties. This 19th century property still retains lots of character and would suit any discerning purchaser looking for a spacious family sized home. Accommodation is laid out over three floors with the addition of three cellar rooms offering further scope if needed.

Located in a convenient position with the M65 motorway approx 2.5 miles away, amenities in Darwen nearby as well as neighbouring towns Blackburn and Bolton are within easy reach. Darwen train station (approx 1 mile away) provides great commuting links to Manchester city centre and the airport.

Offers around £700,000
