16 Glebe Way, Cogenhoe, Northamptonshire NN7 1NS

An established 3/4 bedroom detached village property situated in Cogenhoe which is a desirable village convenient for the A45 and the towns of Northampton, Wellingborough, Rushden and Milton Keynes.

The accommodation includes a hallway, study (or alternatively bedroom 4), spacious lounge/diner with open fireplace, kitchen with a range of appliances, conservatory, first floor landing, three double bedrooms (master bedroom with en suite shower room/wc) and large main bathroom.

Features include UPVC double-glazing, gas radiator central heating, micro-generating solar panels, driveway, garage and a southerly aspect garden. The house is now vacant and is available with no onward chain.

Cogenhoe has a local Londis shop/post office, church, pub, social club, football club, bowls club, local primary school, playing field and village hall. The closest comprehensive range of retail/leisure facilities are available at either Northampton or Rushden Lakes and a regular rail service operates from both Northampton (for London Euston) and Wellingborough (for London St Pancras).

This is a property that would be ideal for a buyer wanting a family home in a good village and an early viewing is recommended.
