AVAILABLE NOW

A first floor maisonette offering flexible accommodation with a good size garden including a well proportioned outbuilding, ideal for a home office, gym or games room.

Nestled in the corner of a quiet cul de sac in sought after Ashted, the layout includes two good size bedrooms, a generous reception room, a fitted kitchen and family bathroom with natural light. There is also access to a good size loft space and externally there is a brick built utility room. The cul de sac also has the benefit of residents parking.

Darcy Place is brilliantly located, close to many of the well regarded local schools and is within comfortable reach of the mainline station and the village shops.
