Nestled in the highly desirable village of Symington, this attractive semi-detached home offers generous living space, flexible accommodation, and exceptionally large gardens with beautiful open views. Ideally positioned within easy reach of Biggar and surrounding countryside, the property combines peaceful village living with convenient access to local amenities.

The ground floor comprises a welcoming entrance hall leading to a bright and spacious living room, perfect for relaxing or entertaining. A well-proportioned family room provides additional versatile living space, while the adjoining kitchen offers ample room for dining and direct access to a charming breakfast nook, a separate dining room creates an ideal setting for formal meals. Also on this level is a convenient ground floor bedroom, a WC, and access to the porch.

Upstairs, the property continues to impress with a generous master bedroom complete with a walk-in wardrobe. A further well-sized double bedroom and a large family bathroom complete the first floor, along with additional storage and circulation space.

Additionally the property benefits from double glazing and oil central heating.

One of the standout features of this home is the substantial garden grounds. The property benefits from extensive outdoor space, offering a high degree of privacy along with lovely open views across the surrounding countryside. The gardens provide excellent potential outdoor entertaining or family use.

Symington is a picturesque and well-regarded village in South Lanarkshire, known for its strong sense of community and attractive rural setting. The nearby town of Biggar offers a wide range of amenities including independent shops, cafés, restaurants, and well-regarded schools. The area is popular with those seeking a balance between country living and accessibility, with good transport links to larger towns and cities.
