PROPERTY SUMMARY

One-Bedroom First-Floor Flat in a Historic Railway Setting building, converted in 1988/89. The original station buildings date from the Victorian era and are Grade II listed, giving the property an interesting architectural and historical setting.

The flat enjoys views overlooking the Trans Pennine Way and is conveniently located close to the seafront, whilst the main town centre and its range of amenities are also within easy reach. The surrounding area offers excellent opportunities for walking and enjoying the nearby coastline.

A distinctive one-bedroom property combining a historic setting with a convenient location close to both the coast and town centre. The property also benefits from a private allocated parking space.

Please note: The property cannot be used as a holiday let or Airbnb. It may, however, be used for long-term residential letting.
