SUMMARY

A well-presented three-bedroom home occupying a generous corner plot, with gardens extending to three sides and pleasant views across a communal green, situated within the highly sought-after residential area of Cowley. Located on the northern outskirts of Exeter, less than two miles from the city centre, the property benefits from excellent local amenities, including a regular bus service, a well-stocked farm shop, and St David's mainline railway station with direct services to London Paddington.

Greenacres is an attractive and well-maintained development of houses and apartments set within delightful surroundings. Its edge-of-city location provides the perfect balance of convenience and access to nature, with nearby woodland walks and open green spaces to enjoy.

The spacious accommodation comprises an entrance hall, a modern fitted kitchen, and a light and airy open-plan living/dining room featuring double doors opening onto the rear garden. A useful understairs storage cupboard completes the ground floor. On the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a contemporary shower room with a walk-in shower. The property also offers potential for further extension, subject to the necessary planning consents.

Outside, the delightful enclosed garden wraps around both the rear and side of the property. Predominantly laid to lawn, it is complemented by mature shrubs, seasonal planting, and an established pear tree. A garden shed provides useful storage, while a gate offers access to the front garden, which is similarly laid to lawn and bordered by mature shrubs.

To the front, the property enjoys an attractive outlook over a communal green, mainly laid to lawn and enhanced by a variety of mature trees. A footpath leads to the nearby parking area, where the property benefits from an allocated single garage. Additional visitor parking is available within the Greenacres development.

Early internal viewing is highly recommended.
