PROPERTY

A flight of steps leads from the private walled garden and parking area to a welcoming entrance hall, which provides access to two well-appointed bedrooms and the staircase to the upper floor. The top level houses the principal living spaces and a versatile third bedroom or home office, and a bathroom for convenience.

At the heart of the home, the open-plan kitchen, dining, and living space stretches over 29 feet, flooded with natural light from dual-aspect east and west facing windows. Exposed beams, oak flooring, and a fireplace provide the space with both a warmth and character — an inviting environment for entertaining, unwinding after a day on the beach, coastal paths or after a round at the links.

The principal bedroom suite offers sweeping sea views, a good-sized dressing area with a range of built-in wardrobes, and a spacious en-suite bathroom. The second double bedroom also benefits from striking vistas and a en-suite shower room.

Practical touches include a walk-in utility and storage cupboard off the entrance hall, with additional outside storage beneath the outside staircase — ideal for surfboards, golf clubs, and beach or coastal gear.

OUTSIDE

Accessed via a private driveway, Heligan's gated and private walled garden provide a serene and secure setting. The property features a generous parking space and a well-proportioned garden with a level lawn and a paved terrace — perfect for evening drinks or summer barbecues. A further terrace at the top of the external steps offers a tranquil, elevated spot for morning coffee, soaking in the rural panorama to the rear. Further visitor parking is available to the rear of the development.
