The ground floor commercial unit, currently operating as a long-standing barbers, benefits from strong footfall on Slough's main High Street. In addition to the main trading area, the shop includes its own bathroom plus a rear office space, enhancing its practicality and appeal for a wide range of tenants.

Above, the self-contained one-bedroom apartment offers modern, comfortable living with a separate contemporary kitchen, a spacious living room, a well-sized double bedroom, and a sleek bathroom. The private entrance ensures full independence from the commercial premises, making it attractive to professional tenants seeking quiet, well-located accommodation.

The property's rear access is a significant advantage, providing two private parking spaces allocated specifically to the flat—a rare benefit for such a central address. The barbershop retains use of the front ground-floor apron for parking or loading if required, keeping all demised areas clearly separated and practical for long-term occupation.

Located moments from shops, restaurants, cafés and key amenities, and within easy walking distance of Slough Station (Elizabeth Line), the property is ideally placed to attract both residential and commercial tenants. Slough's ongoing
