WHAT'S GREAT?

A newly constructed family home situated in the hugely popular village of Brixworth. The property is being built to and incredibly high specification by local, quality builders. Ecton Homes.

This gorgeous home is nearing completion and is part of an exclusive development of just four, executive homes and is available to buy using the government 'help to buy' scheme if desired.

Internally the accommodation comprises; welcoming entrance hall, stunning kitchen family room, lounge, study, utility room and ground floor WC.

On the first floor expect to find four double bedrooms and a stylishly appointed family bathroom. The master bedroom also enjoys a walk in wardrobe and luxury ensuite shower room.

Outside there is a generous rear garden along with a large drive and detached garage.

Brixworth enjoys a superb village High Street with a range of amenities along with some superb countryside walks and Pitsford Reservoir being just a short, 3 minute drive away. It is also popular with commuters and has access to all major local road and rail links within a short drive.
