2 East Ridgeway, Cuffley, Potters Bar, EN6 4AP

Set behind a sweeping in-and-out driveway on one of Cuffley's most distinguished residential roads, this exceptional six-bedroom double fronted detached home is a showcase of timeless architecture, refined interiors and superb future potential. Occupying a generous and secluded plot, the home offers just under 3,100 sq ft of beautifully appointed internal accommodation. From the elegant symmetry of its façade to the peaceful, tree-framed garden to the rear, this is a property where space, light and thoughtful design come together in perfect harmony. Extremely well presented and rich in natural light, the home blends classic character with modern finishes, while also offering the rare opportunity to further enhance or extend (subject to planning). With treetop views, multiple reception rooms, a large driveway, double garage and Cuffley village just a short walk away, this is a home that evolves with you, offering both immediate comfort and long-term potential.
