Location

Beachville Court is ideally located on Brighton Road in Lancing, directly opposite the beach, with excellent bus and train connections.

This retirement development offers easy access to Lancing's relaxed coastal lifestyle, with cafés, shops, and scenic walks just steps away. For local and regional travel, several bus routes serve Brighton Road, including the 700, N700, 19A, and 16, easily connecting residents to Shoreham-by-Sea, Brighton, and surrounding areas.

Inside

This well-presented generous sized one double bedroom flat features an intercom phone security system, a convenient storage cupboard housing the consumer unit and boiler, a bright lounge-diner with views over the well maintained communal garden, and a compact kitchen also overlooking the garden.

Communal areas include a lounge and kitchen where regular activities are held. There are also separate guest rooms available to hire for loved ones to stay.

Outside

The property offers residents' parking, large communal gardens with laid lawns and flat assessable patio areas, plus outdoor charging points.

Lifestyle

Living at Beachville Court offers the best of both worlds: the comfort of independence with the option of companionship. Residents enjoy the privacy of their own self-contained flats, perfect for quiet mornings or peaceful evenings. Yet just outside your door, the communal lounge and kitchen host regular activities, creating a warm, sociable atmosphere for those who enjoy company. Whether you prefer your own space or like to join in with others, Beachville Court supports your lifestyle - on your terms.
