Accommodation

Location

Windsor Way in Broadway Park, Lancing offers a peaceful residential setting with a strong sense of community, easy access to local shops and healthcare facilities, and excellent public transport links. The area is well-maintained with level pathways and landscaped surroundings, making it simple to get around and enjoy the outdoors. Nearby coastal walks, Widewater Lagoon, and green spaces provide opportunities for relaxation and gentle exercise, while the manageable properties are designed for comfort and low maintenance. With its blend of security, convenience, and welcoming atmosphere, Windsor Way is an attractive location for those seeking a calm and supportive environment.

Inside

This delightful park home features a welcoming entrance hall leading into a spacious L-shaped lounge/diner that provides both comfort and versatility, complemented by a well-appointed fitted kitchen. The property offers two generously sized double bedrooms, a practical study room ideal for hobbies or home office use, and a modern shower room.

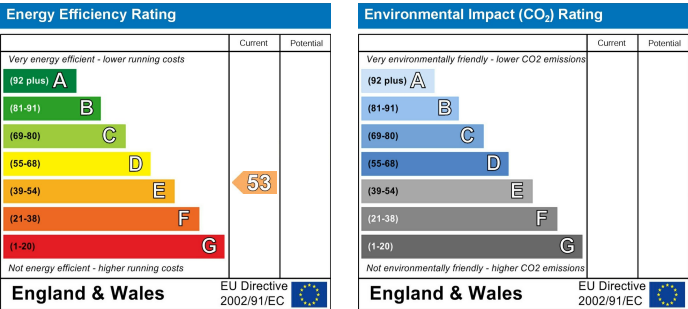

Outside

The property benefits a low maintenance front garden, while the west-facing rear garden offers a delightful combination of lawn and patio, perfect for relaxing. Adding to its practicality, the home benefits from off street parking and two useful sheds, providing ample storage space.

Lifestyle

Life in this over 50's park home offers a relaxed and secure lifestyle within a welcoming community, where residents can enjoy the benefits of low-maintenance living in a peaceful setting. With well kept surroundings, easy access to local shops, healthcare, and transport links, and the added comfort of private outdoor space, the environment is designed to support independence while fostering social connections. The pace of life is calm and unhurried, with opportunities to take part in community activities, enjoy nearby coastal walks, or simply unwind in the comfort of a thoughtfully designed home, making it an ideal choice for those seeking convenience, companionship, and tranquillity.
