Robert Luff & Co are delighted to offer this well-presented one-bedroom flat to let, ideally situated on South Street, one of the principal retail thoroughfares in the heart of Worthing town centre. South Street forms a key link between Montague Street and Warwick Street, both of which offer a vibrant mix of high-street retailers, independent boutiques, cafés, and restaurants.

The property benefits from its central location, placing a wide range of local amenities within easy reach, including shopping facilities, leisure venues, and excellent transport links. Worthing town centre is known for its lively yet relaxed seaside atmosphere, with the nearby seafront, promenade, and Worthing Pier all just a short stroll away. Regular bus services and Worthing railway station provide convenient connections to surrounding areas, including Brighton and London.

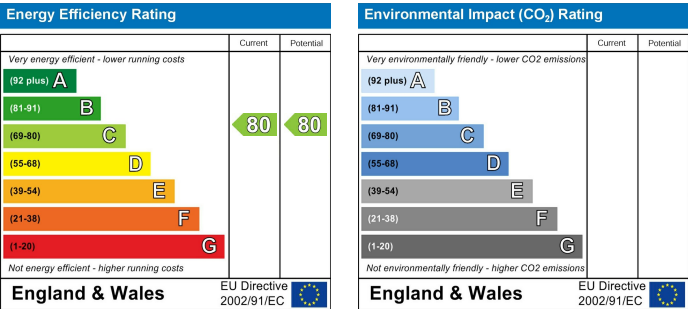

This property is ideal for those seeking comfortable living in a highly convenient and sought-after central location.
